2018/2019 Summer Series Race 4 at Sandringham Yacht Club

Yes, it's back to Sandy time.

The latest versions of the Race 4 Nov 25 Sailing Instructions V1-Nov 22 and Race 4 Entry list with the handicaps V3 Nov 22 are now available. Click on the associated links to download these Race 4 documents. Photos of the Endeavour IV and the Classic Race 4 class flag have been included in the latest version.

Some Race 4 items to note:

The Classic's race 4 scheduled start at 1030 hrs. will be conducted by the SYC Race Committee boat Endeavour IV using VHF Channel 71. The Race 4 Class Flag is Code T (Tango)

SYC Race Committee Vessel Endeavour IV

Endeavour IV will be stationed West of the SYC Race tower and slightly to the north of the line between SYC 4 and the SYC Race tower.

A Windward gate will be used for Race 4. The Windward gate as described in the SI's is two orange floating marks on a magnetic bearing displayed on the Endeavour IV. Pass through this windward gate in the same direction as the start line was crossed, then proceed to the first mark of the allocated course.

The race 4 finish line is between the SYC Race control tower and the mark SYC 4. The SYC Race Tower will record finish times.

SYC is conducting a J24 laid mark race starting at 1000hrs. The J24's will be using the windward gate. They won't be using SYC marks.

There's no SMS pre race sign on required for Race 4.

Special new entry note.

We have smart looking Claire with us for Race 4. With Richard Macrae on the helm, she'll make a freshly shorn sheep going through the dip look slow.

Race 4 results

Conditions on Port Phillip forecast

Current conditions forecast by the BoM for Port Phillip look ideal for Race 4 on Sunday. Don't say nothing on this subject.

CYAA News

Voyaging on the HMB Endeavour

Those of us who look at the CYAA web site will have seen a promotion for an Australian National Maritime Museum. It's about the sailing schedule of the HMB Endeavour. A recent request was received from the ANMM to help spread the news of the various voyages to be sailed in the near future. Already the opportunity to sail on the James Craig to Hobart Wooden Boat Festival is opportunity lost. For those wanting to tread in the footsteps of Captain Cook and discover the experience of voyaging to Hobart through whatever Storm Bay can throw up, here's the opportunity.

HMB Endeavour sails to Tasmania, New Caledonia and New Zealand in 2019.

Sunday Cruising with the Classic's on Port Phillip

For those of us who decide on the moment to go out on a Sunday morning for a two hour of so sail, be it single handed or short handed, there's nothing like it to refresh and prepare you to handle all what the next week will throw at you.

We know as you drop the mooring lines you wonder if there's other Classics doing the same or would do the same if they knew what other CYAA types, had the same spur of the moment decision making thinking, were doing.

To see if we can set up some easy to use process to make this happen we'll talk with Richard Macrae. He handles the Team App operation. The idea is to make it simple to use and not bother people who are into Sunday lawn mowing and weed pulling or making sure the garbage bins are in line. So let's see what happens. This idea may end up be an idea that goes nowhere but, we do have to work on ways to help our CYAA members who want to use their Classic's more but for lack of crew reasons miss out on participating in our Classic Yacht racing activities.

This idea is in line with one of the takeaways from 2018 Cup Regatta survey. So let's see what happens.

Back to Race 4 on Sunday

Here's to a clean and on the gun start. Keep in mind those well known words, when the adrenalin rush sets in, no barging.

Regards to all
